SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI 2020 - 2021
CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF SPOKANE

Selection from Bishop Daly's Pastoral Letter 05-25:

Vocations to the Holy Priesthood

This truth prompts me, as your bishop, to ask your daily prayers for priestly vocations. In 1844, Father Adrian Hoecken, S.J., celebrated Mass for the largest village of the Kalispel Tribe in present day Pend Orielle County. This was the first Mass offered in what would become the Diocese of Spokane. That mustard seed of the Church planted long ago has developed deep roots and large full branches throughout eastern Washington which require the care of priests.

Lord, send Your Church good workers, but they should be really good ones; send good missionaries, men such as they should be, to work hard in Your vineyard; priests, my God, truly detached from themselves, their own ease, and worldly goods; they can be a smaller number; provided they're good. Grant Your Church this grace, O Lord.<sup>11</sup>

The Sacrament of Unity

Our diocese is blessed with the rich wheat land of the Palouse and the many vineyards of Walla Walla and the Columbia Basin. From our soil come wheat and grapes, by our hands they are crafted into bread and wine, and on our altars they become the Body and Blood of Christ. The bread and wine are signs of the Church's unity. The many grains are ground into a single loaf and the many grapes are crushed into wine. Like the bread and the wine, we the many are made one in Christ.

St. Augustine, in an Easter morning sermon, addressing those who had been baptized the night before, asks them to consider how the bread that will become the Body of Christ is made, and how they the newly baptized went through a similar process. He states that as the grain is ground into flour, they were ground down through their Lenten fasting. As water is poured over the flour to form a dough, the water of baptism was poured over them. And as the dough is baked into a loaf, they are fired with the Holy Spirit being formed into the Body of Christ.<sup>12</sup>

After the Consecration of the Mass, the priest beseeches God the Father, "grant that we, who are nourished by the Body and Blood of your Son and filled with his Holy Spirit may become one body, one spirit in Christ."<sup>13</sup> Brothers and sisters, there is no room for division among us; it is our prayer, it is God's will that we be "one body, one spirit in Christ." I often reflect upon this oneness — which anticipates our unity in heaven — when I pray at the altar: "Lord, renew your Church which is in eastern Washington by the light of the Gospel. Strengthen the bond of unity between the faithful and the pastors of your people ... that in a world torn by strife your people may shine forth as a prophetic sign of unity and concord."<sup>14</sup>

Year of Saint Joseph ...

December 8, 2020, to December 8, 2021

First Reading, from the New Testament. Acts 4:8-12

Something to ponder:

Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said: "Leaders of the people and elders: If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a cripple, namely, by what means he was saved, then all of you and all the people of Israel should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead; in his name this man stands before you healed. He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved."
