

The “Little Flock”

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C)

Jesus said to his disciples: “Do not be afraid any longer, little flock, for your Father is pleased to give you the kingdom.” Luke 12:32

This short statement from Jesus reveals three things to us:

First of all, we hear Jesus offer the familiar reminder that we ought not allow fear to take hold of our lives. There are so many things in life that can have the effect of causing fear, worry, anxiety and the like. Overcoming fear is a matter of humility, in that humility enables us to turn our eyes from ourselves and the problems we face and to put our eyes upon our Lord. When we put our eyes on Him, fear dissipates and trust takes its place.

Second, this is also a very tender statement from Jesus in that He calls His disciples, and all of us, His “little flock.” This is a term of endearment and reveals our Lord’s gentle and compassionate heart. This term of endearment reveals not only that we belong to Jesus, it also reveals how His love for us is intimate and heartfelt. If we understand this love of His we will be compelled to love Him back with the same depth of intimacy.

Lastly, this line points us to the Kingdom of our Father in Heaven. The Father, whom we must trust and with whom we must have an intimate relationship, invites us to share in His most glorious Kingdom. His Kingdom becomes ours, and when we can see and understand how glorious this calling is, we will be filled with hope and excitement as we seek to obtain it.

Reflect, today, upon the heartfelt invitation of our compassionate Lord Jesus to put your eyes upon His Kingdom. As you do so, allow this revelation to cast out fear from your life, strengthening you to overcome that burden. Put your trust in God and allow Him to transform you.

My Divine Shepherd, I accept Your invitation to put my trust in You. Please free me from the many fears that I am tempted with in life. Help me to have confidence in You and Your grace as I seek to put my eyes on the glory of Your Kingdom. Jesus, I trust in You.

Marriage Saving The Weekend Phase

During the weekend phase of Retrouvaille, a series of presentations are given by a team of three couples and a priest. The team presents a technique of communication that enables you to take a good look at most areas of your relationship. After each presentation you have time in the privacy of your room to discuss the previous presentation.

Retrouvaille is for any couple who would like to rediscover their marriage and improve communication.

Visit www.Retrouvaille.org for emotional testimonials. For confidential information or to register for the September 9, 2022, Spokane weekend call (509) 448-4287 or visit the web site at www.Retrouvaille.org. The deadline for registration is 8/29/22.

Please pray for Father Ishida and all priests ... as they are always in need of our prayers.

DO YOU KNOW A COLLEGE STUDENT?

Eighty percent of Catholic students who go off to college stop practicing their faith. But the 20% of students who do practice say that one of the main reasons was because they got an invite from the Catholic on-campus ministry. Let's help make sure that happens.

Please send the names of incoming or current college students you know and the college they attend to Cassie Campton (ccampton@newmanministry.com), Director of Newman Ministries Student Outreach. Once received, the on-campus Catholic Ministry will invite the student to participate.

Thank you for your help as we work together to help college students grow in their Catholic faith!

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.
