

Year of the EUCCHARIST

SOLEMNITY OF CORPUS CHRISTI 2020 - 2021
CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF SPOKANE

Selection from Bishop Daly's Pastoral Letter 05-25:

Three-fold Communion

The Eucharist reaches its summit in the Communion Rite during which there are three communions. All join with one voice in praying the Our Father together. In this prayer to God the Father, we profess the filial union we have with Him. This is the first communion. Then we exchange the "Kiss of Peace," whereby the priest and people express fraternal union which is the second communion. Following the Kiss of Peace is what St. Ambrose of Milan understands to be a kiss between Christ, the Bridegroom, and His Bride, the faithful soul.¹⁵ This "kiss" is our reception of the Body and Blood of Christ. This is the third communion and through it we are to become what we have received.¹⁶

In the Eucharistic kiss we receive Christ, the Incarnate Word. Our mouths become sacred, consecrated with the Body and Blood of Christ. In imitation of the Incarnate Word there are to be no words of anger, slander or gossip coming forth from our mouths. Our words are to praise God and bless His Holy Name, they are to give peace and solace to our neighbor, they are to bring justice and truth to our world.

Before his own reception of Holy Communion, the priest prays quietly, "May the receiving of your Body and Blood Lord Jesus Christ, not bring me to judgment and condemnation, but through your loving mercy be for me protection in mind and body and a healing remedy."¹⁸ This theme of the healing and protective power of the Blessed Sacrament is reiterated when he purifies the paten and chalice and prays, "What has passed our lips as food, O Lord, may we possess in purity of heart, that what has been given to us in time may be our healing for eternity."¹⁹ These divine provisions are to strengthen us on our earthly journey; this supernatural medicine, dispensed by the Divine Physician, keeps us safe for eternal life.

*Divine Savior,
transform me into Yourself.
May my hands be Your hands.
May my tongue be Your tongue.
Grant that all my senses and my whole body
may serve only to glorify You.
Above all, transform my soul and all its powers that my memory, my will and my affections may be the memory, the will and the affections of You.
I pray You to destroy in me all that is not of You.
Grant that I may live in You and by You and for You,
That I may truly say with Saint Paul,
"I live, now not I, but Christ lives in me."¹⁷*
