Selection from Bishop Daly's Pastoral Letter 05-25:

Eucharistic Mission

With the conclusion of Holy Communion, the priest exhorts us to "Go forth ...". "Go forth" to proclaim your faith in God the Father to a broken world; "Go forth" to share your hope in Jesus Christ, the Son of God with a doubting world; "Go forth" filled with the grace of the Holy Spirit to offer tender charity to a dejected and impoverished world. This is our mission; this is the mission of the Church. When the priest sends us forth, we cry out with one voice, "Thanks be to God!" It is with great gratitude to God the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit that we go forth to do God's will in the world. We who have shared in the Eucharistic Sacrifice now offer ourselves as a living sacrifice for the sake of others.

Indeed, the Eucharist is "a sacrament of love, a sign of unity, [and] a bond of charity."²⁰ When we receive Holy Communion, we are given new strength to love our neighbor. In a fourth-century sermon to the faithful in Antioch, St. John Chrysostom warned those who receive the Holy Eucharist, yet fail to love their neighbor: "You have tasted the Blood of the Lord, yet you do not recognize your brother, ... You dishonor this table when you do not judge worthy of sharing your food [with] someone [already] judged worthy to take part in this meal. ... God freed you from all your sins and invited you here, but you have not become more merciful."²¹ In our own times, Pope Benedict XVI echoed this warning: "A Eucharist which does not pass over into the concrete practice of love is intrinsically fragmented."²²

As evening draws to a close and your visit to the parish church is concluded, you imagine how other members in the Body of Christ, somewhere — near or far — are joining their voices with angels and saints in Eucharistic celebration, "from the rising of the sun to its setting, the name of the Lord is praised."²³ The great Eucharistic Mystery is without end on this earth, being for us "a pledge of the glory to come."²⁴

Contemplating this gift of wonder, the Eucharist, the words of Deuteronomy become ours, "For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as the Lord our God is to us whenever we call upon Him?"²⁵
